ORDER DESIGNATING JUDGMENT AS FINAL JUDGMENT

Considering plaintiffs' motion to designate as final the May 10, 2011 judgment dismissing plaintiffs' claims against H. F. Sockrider, Jr., Mr. Sockrider's lack of an objection to it, the law and the evidence, the Court (1) specifically finds that there is no reason to delay the appeal of its May 10, 2011 judgment sustaining Mr. Sockrider's exception of peremption/prescription and dismissing plaintiffs' claims against him and that the immediate appeal of this judgment will promote judicial efficiency and the prompt resolution of this entire case and (2) hereby designates as a final judgment the May 10, 2011 judgment sustaining H. F. Sockrider, Jr.'s exception and dismissing plaintiffs' claims against him.

Shreveport, Louisiana, this 20th day of June, 2011.
